Bon Bini!
Welcome to Aruba! Envision pristine beaches, turquoise waters, and lazy, sun-kissed days. Picture yourself on this idyllic island where our culturally diverse and multilingual people welcome you with gracious smiles and a proud tradition of warm hospitality.

World-class resorts, fabulous culinary experiences, action-packed casinos, exciting nightlife, duty-free shopping, rejuvenating spas, and a bevy of land and sea activities and adventures combine to create the perfect Caribbean vacation experience. Expansive beaches line the picturesque waters of the Caribbean, where sailing, kayaking, watersports, and deep-sea fishing are in limitless supply. Windsurfers and kite boarders come from near and far to catch our famous trade winds in their sails, while vibrant coral reefs and sunken wrecks mesmerize divers and snorkelers with a dazzling parade of marine life.

Arikok National Park is a natural preserve of cactus-studded landscapes, rugged trails, fascinating historical sites, and indigenous wildlife. Make time for some off-road adventure; our divi-divi trees will always point the way home!

Downtown Oranjestad and the high-rise strip boast bustling malls and shopping centers with entertainment and eateries. Sunset is the perfect time to enjoy a tropical cocktail at any of dozens of beach bars. For dinner, enjoy a taste of authentic Aruban cooking or various ethnic and international cuisines prepared by talented chefs. Afterwards, casinos, trendy clubs, glittering shows, pub crawls, party boats, or just a quiet nightcap await you.

Need more reasons to travel to Aruba? Our One Happy Island invites vacationers from all over the world to experience its full lineup of some of the Caribbean’s most exciting celebrations, festivals, and sports competitions throughout the year. From foodies and wine enthusiasts to music and live entertainment aficionados, travelers of all types are guaranteed to find the perfect event on Aruba’s unique and fun-filled calendar.
Our land...
Aruba is located in the heart of the southern Caribbean, approximately 16 miles from the South American coastline. The Island is 19.6 miles long and 6 miles across at its widest point, with a total area of 70 square miles. Aruba’s topography and vegetation are unusual for a Caribbean island. On the south and west coasts there are miles of pristine white beaches that rank among the most beautiful in the world, rimmed by calm blue seas with visibility in some areas to a depth of 100 feet. The northeast coast along the windward shore is rugged and wild. The interior is desert-like, with a variety of cacti and dramatic rock formations. The Island’s most famous trees are the watapana (divi-divi) trees, all permanently sculpted into graceful southeast-bending shapes by the constant trade winds.

Our weather...
Except for a few scattered weather events annually, and perhaps some limited showers on some days (welcomed by our tropical plants!), the sun does indeed always shine here. The average temperature is 82 degrees Fahrenheit. The greatest likelihood of precipitation is from October through January.

Our people...
There are about 108,000 inhabitants on Aruba, representing more than 96 different nationalities—all living peacefully together. Hospitality remains a strongly ingrained tradition. Our official languages are Dutch as well as the native tongue of Papiamento. Most Arubans are fluent in English and Spanish as well. Papiamento is a lilting, melodic language, evolved over the centuries from an eclectic mix of Spanish, Dutch, and Portuguese with a sprinkling of English and French.

Our government...
On January 1, 1986, Aruba became a separate entity within the Kingdom of the Netherlands. The Dutch government is still responsible for defense and foreign affairs. Aruba’s system of government is based on democratic principles. The Governor, appointed by the Queen of the Dutch Kingdom, acts as the sovereign’s representative on the Island. The legislature consists of a 21-member Parliament elected by popular vote. The Council of Ministers, presided over by the Prime Minister, forms the executive branch.

Our visitors...
Aruba attracts close to one million international visitors annually and enjoys the highest return rate in the Caribbean. Perfect weather, hospitable people, and world-renowned beaches are the most compelling factors for return visits. Also important are the Island’s mix of luxury high-rise and casual low-rise resorts, unique natural beauty, a rich and diverse culture, abundant land and sea activities, safety and security, and enduring friendships.

Our history...
Aruba’s earliest inhabitants arrived in small vessels about 4,000 years ago from the South American mainland. These first Indians were hunters and gatherers who lived in small, scattered groups. The crop-growing Caquetio Indians of the Arawak tribe arrived around 1000 AD and settled in three large villages. The first European to land on Aruban shores was the Spanish explorer Alonso de Ojeda, who is thought to have arrived around 1499. The Spanish exported the Indians to Hispaniola, putting them to work in the copper mines.
During the years that followed, ownership of the Island changed hands several times. In 1636, near the culmination of the Eighty Years' War between Spain and Holland, the Dutch took possession and remained in control for nearly two centuries. In 1805, during the Napoleonic Wars, the English briefly took over Aruba, but it was returned to Dutch control in 1816.

In 1824, gold was discovered in Rool Fluit on the north coast. Mining was done by hand until machinery was imported. In 1872, a large smelting works was built in Bushiribana, followed by another site 25 years later in Balashi. Gold mining ended in 1916 when World War I broke out.

Phosphate mining began in 1879, and Aruba exported the raw material until 1914. Other commercial endeavors have included the breeding of cochineal, a cactus insect that produces a coloring agent; the processing of watapana tree pods, which contain tannin; minor cultivations of silkworms, tobacco, cotton, and peanuts; and most importantly, aloe cultivation and oil refining.

At the beginning of the twentieth century, Aruba's economy was largely dependent upon aloe, and one-third of the Island was devoted to plantations. With moisture-retentive clay soil yielding a product of superior quality, Aruba would ultimately become the largest exporter of aloe in the world.

In 1928, Royal Dutch Shell built the Eagle Oil Refinery, followed by Lago Oil and Transport Company Ltd. in San Nicolas. In 1932, the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey (Esso, now known as Exxon) took over Lago. There were more than 8,000 employees at the peak of refinery production in 1949.

After many challenges, the refinery closed down in 1985, opening a window for tourism, which has now become Aruba's principal industry. Coastal Oil Company (now known as Valero Energy Corporation) of Houston, Texas, reopened the refinery in 1991. In 2012, refinery operations were halted, and today the facility operates as a terminal for tankers.

* A glimpse of Aruba from Indian inhabitation through colonial times and into the modern era can be seen at historical homes, cultural sites, and museums.

Our flag...

Our national flag was officially adopted on March 18, 1976, along with the official anthem “Aruba Dushi Tera.” The four colors each have significance: blue represents the sea that surrounds Aruba; yellow is the color of abundance, representing the Island’s past and its industries of gold, aloe, and oil; red is for the love each Aruban has for the country and the ancient industry of Brazilwood; and white symbolizes the pristine, white beaches as well as the purity of the hearts of Aruba’s people.

The symbols on the flag consist of a red star and two yellow stripes. The red star represents the four points of the compass, with the Island having drawn people from around the world. The star also represents the Island itself, surrounded by the beautiful blue sea. The horizontal yellow stripes denote the free and separate position Aruba enjoys in the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

Arubans celebrate all that the flag and anthem have come to signify with the national holiday of Flag and Anthem Day every March 18, the same day that, in 1948, Holland accepted Aruba’s right to autonomous status within the Kingdom of the Netherlands.
Tips for Tourists

Drinking water
Aruba’s water meets the highest quality standards of the World Health Organization. The desalination process takes place at WEB NV, the world’s second largest desalinization facility, located in Balashi, resulting in the fresh water that flows directly from the tap.

Cell phones
- Your cell phone will work here but check on roaming charges. Contact your local service provider before traveling to Aruba.
- Cellular phones can be rented at the Setar and Digicel kiosks in the airport’s arrivals terminal. A deposit and proper identification are required.
- Repeat visitors may consider purchasing an inexpensive cellular phone instead of renting one.
- Teleshops are located in the hotel area.
- Phone cards can be purchased at Digicel and Setar shops, as well as at many convenient locations throughout the Island, including gas stations and supermarkets.

Internet access
Wi-Fi is available in the public spaces and rooms of most hotels, as well as at many “hot spots” throughout the Island. For more information, please check the profile page of your resort or contact Setar at (297) 525-1000.

Medical facilities
- We have a fully equipped hospital just a few minutes from the hotel sector.
- Be sure to bring all your prescription medicine with you. Foreign prescriptions cannot be filled in Aruba. It will be necessary to make an appointment with a house doctor who can provide you with a local prescription for your medicine or, if not available here, an equivalent.
- All hotels have a doctor on call 24/7; contact your hotel front desk for more information.

Money
- US dollars are widely accepted; to change florins to US dollars, divide the florin amount in half and add 10%. This formula will be especially useful when shopping in supermarkets.
- The exchange rate for US dollars is Awg 1.77 for cash and Awg 1.78 for traveler’s checks. (Awg 1.75 at supermarkets and gas stations / Awg 1.80 at shops and restaurants.)

- All major credit cards and traveler's checks are accepted.
- Personal checks from abroad are not accepted.
- Some shops will not accept US$50 or US$100 due to worldwide counterfeiting.

Service charge and tip
The service charge at a restaurant is shared among servers and kitchen staff. If there is a service charge, a tip is not obligatory, but a token amount left for excellent service is greatly appreciated. If there is no service charge, a tip is appropriate as in the US (+/-15%).

Special needs
- Accessible rooms can be provided by the hotel reservations staffs.
- Labco Medical & Home Healthcare sells, leases, and rents medical and home healthcare products, including wheelchairs, scooters, walkers, daily living aids, and oxygen delivery systems. www.labcoaruba.com
- Adapted Happy Wheels offers products that afford accessibility and safety for those with physical limitations, including Mobi-Chair (amphibious beach wheelchair), Roll-a-Ramp, and Mobi Mat (for portable wheelchairs on sand). adaptedhappywheels@hotmail.com
- Lite Life Medicals provides vans with hydraulic lifts and a ramp, www.litelifemedicals.com
- Essential Health Supplies NV specializes in the retail and rental of home health products www.essentialaruba.com

Sun protection
The sun is strongest from 11 am to 3 pm. Please be sure to reapply sunscreen often and drink plenty of liquids. Sunglasses and a hat/cap are recommended.

Taxes
Room tax and service charge vary at each hotel, adding an additional 19 -22% to the room bill. A turnover tax (BBO) of 1.5% and Health Tax of 1% is either added to or included in the price of all goods and services. There is a $3 Environmental Levy Fee added per room per night to the current room rate and charges. The revenue generated from this levy will be used to contribute to the advancement of green technology, environmental awareness, and sustainable practices in order to reach the governments vision to transition 100% off fossil fuels by 2020.

Time
Aruba is on Atlantic Standard Time year-round.

US Pre-Clearance in Aruba
- Aruba provides the services of The Department of Homeland Security/US Customs and Border Protection to pre-clear all passengers departing on flights to the US. For the most part, passengers have only one stop during the inspection process. Some, however, may have to pay duty, report currency, or have their bags or documents inspected, which will require a second stop.
- In March of 2014, U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officially designated Reina Beatrix International Airport as an authorized preclearance location for general aviation (GA) aircraft transporting up to 19 passengers and crewmembers.
- To allow sufficient time to clear both Aruban and US procedures, which include Transportation Security Administration (TSA) mandated screening, passengers are requested to be at the airport 3 hours prior to departure.
- Passengers are allowed an US$800 duty-free exemption. US$1,000 per person is dutiable at the flat rate of 3%.
Entry requirements
Upon arrival in Aruba, a tourist must have a passport that is valid upon entry and for the duration of stay in Aruba. If the tourist holds a passport from a visa-required country, he or she must have a valid visa sticker in the passport. The maximum period of time that a person can be admitted to Aruba as a tourist is, in principle, 30 days. In a few cases, a tourist may want to stay for more than 30 days. In such a case he/she will have to submit a special petition to DIMAS (the island’s department of immigration and foreign admissions services). Information about applications for extensions of stay is found on www.dimasaruba.com.

Aruba customs
Beside articles for personal use, persons over 18 are allowed a fifth of liquor, 200 cigarettes, 50 cigars, and 250 grams of tobacco. Aruba abides by CITES regulations in monitoring against the international trade in endangered species. For example, products made from sea turtles or conch shells are prohibited from being brought in or out of the country.

Air travel
The gleaming state-of-the-art Reina Beatrix International Airport has won numerous international accolades. For a complete airport guide including shops, restaurants, and facilities, as well as live arrival and departure times, visit www.airportaruba.com. An impressive roster of carriers and charters offer non-stop and direct service to and from the US, Canada, South America, Europe, and the Caribbean. US-bound passengers check in at their own terminal building and have the convenience of a US Customs pre-clearance facility (one of only two in the Caribbean). There is a separate terminal for private planes, with a recently added US Customs pre-clearance facility for private plane passengers.

The airport lists carrier, gateway, and flight information on www.airportaruba.com. Here you will also find live arrival and departure times. The phone number at the airport is (297) 524-2424.

Cruise travel
Each week throughout the year, thousands of cruise-ship passengers disembark at the Port of Oranjestad, where they are greeted by tourism representatives and activity companies positioned to introduce them to Aruba’s many and varied pleasures.

Cruise tourism to the Island began in the early 1950s with the visit of the M.S. Libertador, a combination cargo/passenger ship belonging to the Royal Netherlands Steamship Company (K.N.S.M), now the Nedlloyd Line. Regular visits by passenger-only ships began in 1958 and have been steadily increasing in number ever since. Aruba is now on the itinerary of most cruise lines serving the Caribbean.

The height of the cruise tourism season runs from October through April; however, numerous big ships and mega-liners visit the Island year-round. Included are Holland America Line, Princess Cruises, Royal Caribbean Cruise Line, Celebrity Cruises, and Carnival Cruises. Aruba is prepared to greet even more of the big ships with renovations and beautification plans scheduled by the Aruba Ports Authority.

For a complete cruise schedule, please contact Aruba Ports Authority by telephone at (297) 582-6633 or visit its website, www.arubaports.com. Aruba Ports Authority offices are located at L.G. Smith Boulevard 23, Oranjestad, Aruba. Make your cruise visit to Aruba the most enjoyable and memorable Caribbean cruise experience you’ve ever had. Take advantage of Resort Day Pass offers for families and couples who visit our shores. Visit www.aruba.com for a listing of resorts offering cruise visitors day passes, along with pricing and descriptions.

Getting around

Getting around Aruba is quick and easy. Bus service to and from downtown Oranjestad and resort areas is reliable and inexpensive. Taxis are always available and have set rates. The downtown Street Car is free of charge.

Buses

There is a daily bus service all along the hotel strip. Retour cards Awg. 7.00 (local currency) or USD 4.00, this card can be used for two trips. E. G. to the beaches (hotel area) and return downtown or V.V. Can also be used to travel to any other part of the island. Baby Beach Card at Awg. 14.00 or USD 8.00 can be used for transportation from Oranjestad to Baby Beach and/or Roger’s Beach including the return.

Day Pass Awg. 17.50 or USD 10.00 Valid for one day, unlimited transportation on all the routes of Arubus across the island. Visit www.arubus.com for more information.

Taxis

Taxis have no meters; fares are set by the government. Feel free to ask your driver to confirm the fare or show you the rate sheet. Rates are per ride and not per person. Minimum fare is US$5. Current rates include airport to high-rise hotel area ($25) and airport to low-rise area ($22). Rates are subject to change. An additional $3 charge is added on Sundays and holidays. See www.aruba.com for complete listing of taxi fares.

Car rentals

Many visitors rent a car for at least one day to see the sights beyond resort areas. Driving is on the right side of the road, no right turns on red. Vehicles on the right generally have right of way. It is wise to familiarize yourself with road signs that differ from those in the US; most car-rental companies provide maps with a key to the road signs. After a rain, drive cautiously because roads are slick. Foreign and international driving licenses are accepted.

On the hotel side, there are paved roads and highways. There is a public parking lot behind the central bus station in downtown Oranjestad. While many tour in the comfort of an air-conditioned motor coach, those more daring may prefer a jeep or all-terrain vehicle. A four-wheel-drive vehicle is a good idea when venturing off the beaten path in the interior of the Island and along the windward coast.
Sharp geographical differences create a unique combination of land and sea activities. Calm, glittering turquoise waters fringed by marshmallow-soft ivory beaches neighbor a national park encompassing a wild windward coast and an unsettled rugged interior. Test your endurance hiking on 20 miles of rugged trails at Arikok National Park, climbing rocks at Ayo and Casibari, or climbing 500 steps to the top of the Hooiberg, one of Aruba’s highest peaks. For off-road adventure, rent a jeep, an all-terrain vehicle (or the new ultra terrain vehicles), or a mountain bike. Saddle up for a scenic or challenging horseback ride.

Wet ‘n’ wild fun awaits you right at your hotel beach, where you can rent Jet Skis, Sunfish sailboats, paddleboats, WaveRunners, banana boats, and motorized tubes. Walkers will enjoy a brick beachfront path along the high-rise strip. Beach tennis and volleyball are perfect for fun and fitness. Most resorts have their own tennis courts.
Sailing
Hop aboard a pleasure boat or luxury catamaran for a day of sailing. The calm waters of Aruba’s leeward coast are great for sailing, and the steady trade winds ensure favorable conditions for snorkeling adventures, sunset sails, or dinner cruises. Visit www.aruba.com for a listing of watersports activities and cruises.

Diving
Dive operators offer expert instruction and PADI and NAUI courses, including Open Water and Rescue Diver Certification, as well as basic bubble-maker and refresher courses. After learning how to deal with fins, mask, tank, and regulator, many go on to a shallow dive. Reef, wreck, and night diving can all be arranged. Be sure to bring your open-water dive certification. Aruba is known as the wreck-diving capital of the Caribbean. Along Aruba’s entire south coast is a coral reef with over 20 dive sites and 11 diver-friendly wrecks, including a plane, tugboats, cargo ships, and historic vessels such as the Antilla and the Pedernales. Aruba’s easily accessible reefs and shallow formations of coral will fascinate snorkelers, while diving at reefs and wrecks reveals a brilliant underwater panorama of sea life. Shore dives are possible off De Palm Island, Pos Chiquito, and Baby Beach.

Swimming and Snorkeling
The water is calm and perfect for swimming anywhere along the seven miles of Palm Beach, in front of the high-rise resorts, and along Eagle Beach. Snorkeling locales include Boca Catalina, De Palm Island, Mangel Halto, and even some of the wreck sites where there is visibility of up to 100 feet. Watch out for very rough surf all along the northeast coast. Signs are posted at dangerous areas.

Sea Bob
For those seeking a thrilling experience in the water, one of Aruba’s newest activities is Sea Bob. This powerful, hydrodynamic underwater scooter allows riders to enjoy Aruba’s underwater world at speeds up to 15 kilometers an hour. Riders can dip below the surface of the water and glide around vibrant coral reefs along the Malmok, Boca Catalina, and Arashi coastline areas, dodging schools of colorful tropical fish along the way.

JetLev
Soar 30 feet into the air and hover over the water with the water-propelled jetpack of the JetLev. A custom-designed, 225-horsepower engine powers the system. A flight assistant on a WaveRunner will accompany each JetLev pilot to ensure a safe and uninterrupted flight experience.

Parasailing
Up, up, and away! Taking flight along the scenic coast of Palm Beach with one of the many parasailing excursions offered on the Island is a must for adventure seekers. Parasailers board a speedboat that whisks them from the shores of Palm Beach out a few hundred yards where they are launched into the sky over the azure Caribbean Sea.

SNUBA
Snorkelers will love SNUBA, an underwater breathing system that combines snorkeling and scuba. Descend to a depth of 20 feet with your swim fins, diving mask, and breathing apparatus. Air is delivered through a long hose from tanks on pontoon rafts on the surface.

Submarine
For a tour of Aruba’s spectacular, brilliantly-colored coral reefs, hop aboard Atlantis Submarine, descending to a depth of 130 feet. In the Seaworld Explorer semi-submarine, you sit in air-conditioned comfort just five feet below the surface to behold an amazing underwater panorama.
Deep-sea Fishing
For deep-sea fishing, half- and full-day excursions go five to seven miles offshore. Game-fish catch includes sailfish, blue and white marlin, dorado, wahoo, shark, barracuda, kingfish, bonito, amberjack, and blackfin and yellowfin tuna. Enjoy bottom fishing on a sports yacht provided with equipment and bait for reeling in snapper, grouper, triggerfish, and squirrelfish.

Windsurfing and Kitesurfing
Aruba ranks among the top five windsurfing destinations worldwide due to its flat-water locations, challenging wave conditions, extensive shallows, and constant trade winds averaging 15 knots year-round. Strong winds also attract kitesurfers who catapult themselves high above the water executing mid-air acrobatics.

Wakeboarding
Wakeboarders favor the Bucuti inlet just south of the airport, spending entire days perfecting tricks like surface 360s, tantrums, whirlies, and batwings. The Aruba Wakeboarding School offers lessons for all levels, as well as equipment rental for those looking to experience this intense, exhilarating sport.

Kayaking and Paddleboarding
One of the Island’s newer activities is paddleboarding—also known as SUP (standup paddleboarding). Adjusting to balancing on water is the hardest part, but once paddlers get the hang of it, it’s like walking on water! Organized kayaking and paddleboarding tours, are available at popular spots like Mangel Halto and the Spanish Lagoon.

Birding
With some 236 registered species of birds—locals and visitors are captivated with “birding” opportunities. Visitors to Aruba can easily access the Bubali Plas Bird Sanctuary—with a bird-watching tower overlooking marsh areas—located across from to The Mill Resort & Suites in the high-rise hotel area of Palm Beach.

Skydiving
Tandem skydiving in Aruba guarantees an exhilarating experience at one of the most scenic drop zones in the world. Soaring from 10,000 feet up, brave souls are rewarded with a free-fall at 120 mph while harnessed to an experienced instructor.

Beach Tennis
 Introduced to Aruba in 2002, beach tennis is inarguably one of the most popular sports on the Island. Players of all ages and levels of athletic ability are welcome to competitively or recreationally participate in weekly and monthly events. The easy camaraderie of the sport—plus the pumping music, cold beers, and sunny setting—guarantees a good time for everyone. Lighted courts and racket rentals are available at Tropicana Resort Aruba and Moomba Beach Bar.

Yoga
There are a variety of yoga classes offered on the Island, with early morning and sunset yoga classes on the beach among the most popular. Many Island resorts now offer yoga classes, programs, and even complete yoga/wellness vacation packages. Yoga takes to the water as well with SUP yoga, held on the boards used for paddleboarding.

Golf
Golfing in Aruba combines the challenge of constant trade winds and tropical sun with the wonder of desert beauty and sweeping Caribbean views. Tierra del Sol is a unique 18-hole championship desert course (6,785 yards, par 71) with an ocean view, designed by Robert Trent Jones II. The Links at Divi Aruba is a nine-hole course designed by leading architects; golfers play on paspalum grass, over water and beautifully landscaped lagoons.
Beaches

Fringing turquoise Caribbean waters, Aruba’s beaches include wide shaded expanses, quiet retreats, and busy sunbathing and watersports meccas. Much of the seven-mile strip along the west coast is lined with resorts and packed with activity. Beachgoers relax on their comfortable lounges while swimming, snorkeling, kitesurfing, waterskiing, tubing, parasailing, banana boating, and all kinds of wet ‘n’ wild adventures are just steps away.

In contrast, the beaches along the windward coast are in more secluded and undeveloped areas. There are coves carved out of limestone, inlets formed by pounding waves, unique natural phenomena, and craggy desert terrain. Because of strong undertows and crashing waves, swimming here is not recommended. Both coasts afford spectacular Caribbean views. All beaches are open to the public.
Palm Beach
The renowned two-mile-long strip known as Palm Beach is home to glamorous high-rise resorts and dotted by watersports concessions, piers, beach bars, restaurants, and shops. Calm waters make this a comfortable haven for swimmers and snorkelers. Enjoy a walk along the coast at dawn or sunset, and luxuriate in candle-lit, barefoot dining on the beach.

Eagle Beach
Acclaimed as one of the world’s most beautiful beaches, Eagle Beach is a long, uninterrupted stretch of glittering ivory sand with ample parking and palapas for shade. This beach is ideal for morning and sunset walks and jogs, wedding ceremonies and celebrations, and its wide-open spaces are great for families to picnic and play beach games. Some nearby hotels provide cabanas and lounges for their guests. During Easter week, tents dot the coastline as local families enjoy the tradition of camping out.

Baby Beach
Baby Beach is located in Seroe Colorado at the southeastern end of the Island. It is a sandy half-moon expanse wrapped around a calm lagoon, with a refreshment stand and huts. The waters are shallow; swimmers can wade out for a long distance and still touch the sea bottom. Where the lagoon opens out to the sea, snorkelers should watch out for strong currents.

Rodgers Beach
Rodgers Beach is a narrow strip of powdery white sand that hugs a small bay near Baby Beach. Local fishermen anchor their colorful boats within the bay, using its calm waters for protection.

Malmok Beach
Malmok Beach is a narrow sandy stretch in a neighborhood of sprawling homes and a variety of modest windsurfing residences. Its shallow, clear waters make it a popular snorkeling spot. Catamarans and sailboats stop for daytime snorkeling just off the shoreline. Reefs and sunken wrecks nearby afford excellent diving. Nearby, Boca Catalina is a small, secluded bay accessible by steps, perfect for a private swim.

Druif Beach
Druif Beach, a long, narrow, oval-shaped stretch of ivory sand, is home to the casual low-rise resorts. Here, rooms are just steps away from the relatively calm Caribbean waters. Though not too far from bustling downtown Oranjestad, Druif Beach is a quiet and relaxing spot for sunning and socializing.

Manchebo Beach
Just past the low-rise resorts is Manchebo Beach, a very private, undisturbed area named after an Arawak chief. This very wide stretch of flat beach is dotted with swaying palms and the occasional beach lounge. Jutting out at the Island’s most western point, it has some rough surf resulting from converging currents.

Hadirurari Beach
Hadirurari Beach (Fisherman’s Huts), a rocky strip out past the Aruba Marriott Resort, is a popular spot for windsurfing and kitesurfing enthusiasts. It serves as the venue for many sporting events and tournaments throughout the year.

Mangel Halto
Mangel Halto is located in Pos Chiquito on the southeast coast just south of the Spanish Lagoon. It is a perfect picnicking, sunning, shore diving, and snorkeling spot with calm, shallow waters rich in sea life supported by an intriguing network of mangroves.
Arikok National Park

When exploring off the beaten path, be sure to bring plenty of drinking water, snacks, hats, sunglasses, and sunscreen. Sturdy shoes are recommended to protect against sharp corals, rocks, and uneven terrain. The sun’s rays are especially strong from 10 am to 3 pm.

Arikok, a nature preserve covering almost one-fifth of Aruba’s surface area, contains historical sites as well as Aruba’s three geological formations that support unique, indigenous plants and wildlife and that have influenced human settlement. It is on the great granite rocks of Arikok that the Island’s earliest inhabitants left their mark. Painted by Caquetio Indians, the drawings are at least 1,000 years old. Twenty-one miles of well-marked trails await hikers.

The park encompasses Mount Jamanota (Aruba’s highest point, reaching 620 feet), underground Indian caves, and everything in between. Sand dunes and limestone cliffs are found along the coast. Among the desert vegetation in the park are divi-divi trees, rare and exotic cacti, aloe plants, and colorful tropical flowers.

Wildlife includes the cascabel (local rattlesnake) and santanero (cat-eyed snake). The shoco (burrowing owl), prikichi (Aruban parakeet), and kododo blauw (whiptail lizard) are among the park’s residents. Iguanas and many species of migratory birds live in the park as well, and goats and donkeys graze on the hills.

Cunucu Arikok is a restored farm that recreates life in the early days. The tiny, two-room house of mud and grass adobe, called a cas di torto, is surrounded by stone walls and cactus fences. Miralamar, a complex of gold mines and trenches, was active during the first decade of the twentieth century. Masiduri served as an experimental garden in the 1950s. At Prins Plantation, now a complex of abandoned adobe structures, hundreds of coconut trees were cultivated.
as recently as the 1960s. Hofi Fontein is the only place along the north coast with a freshwater spring.

Because of strong undertows and crashing waves, swimming on the windward side is not recommended, but the beaches on Aruba’s wild coast are magnificent. Amazing natural bridges created about one million years ago are found along the north coast.

Boca Grandi is a semi-circular, reef-protected cove with onshore winds that make it a popular windsurfing and kitesurfing spot. Boca Prins is a small, secluded cove amidst rugged limestone cliffs fringed by snow-white sand dunes. Fuente is a rocky cove pounded by surf. Dos Playa features two coves carved out of the limestone bluff; a wide, sandy beach attracts sunbathers and is perfect for picnics. Protected from the rough sea by surrounding rocks, the Natural Pool was once used to hold sea turtles.

The adventurous will enjoy exploring the caves along the northeast coast. In Fontein, the largest and most accessible, drawings left by Amerindians and graffiti etched by early European settlers ornament the walls and ceilings. Quadirikiri is a short distance away on a similar ancient sea cliff. Openings in the ceiling provide natural light for the 500-foot-long cave; bats residing here are quite harmless. The Huliba Cave and Tunnel of Love (Sabana Sulu), named for its heart-shaped entrance, are part of the same underground cave system. *Please note that some of the caves are closed for periods of time to help conserve the residing bat populations.
Historical Sites

Alto Vista Chapel
Known as the Pilgrim’s Chapel, the small, bright yellow Alto Vista Chapel is the picture of tranquility in its dramatic setting on a high coastal plain. The chapel was the Island’s first Roman Catholic Church, built in 1750 by Domingo A. Silvestre and reconstructed in 1953. It is reached by a winding road lined with white crosses marking the Stations of the Cross. It is a special place for peace and contemplation in a magnificent natural setting.

Santa Ana Church
When it was constructed in 1776, Santa Ana Roman Catholic Church in Noord was the Island’s second most important religious meeting place (the first being Alto Vista Chapel). It was rebuilt twice during the nineteenth century, and a final renovation was made in 1916. Its solid oak, hand-carved altar is a recognized work of art in classic neo-Gothic design.

Frenchman’s Pass
French pirates attempted to invade Aruba during the first quarter of the seventeenth century. When an Indian tribal head and his group tried to stop them in this narrow passage, they were killed. Legend has it that their ghosts preside over this tranquil, scenic spot.

California Lighthouse
More than 90 feet high, the imposing California Lighthouse overlooks both a barren lunar landscape and a glittering Palm Beach panorama. It was built in 1914 of local stones and is named after an English steamship that was shipwrecked off the coast.

Rock Formations
Rock formations are of mysterious origin. At Ayo, you can meander through stacks of giant boulders of curious shapes and sizes. In the center of the Island is the Casibari Rock Formation. Meandering through piles of rocks, a narrow path leads up to the top, affording a beautiful panoramic view. A large desert rock garden is at ground level.

Balashi and Bushiribana Gold Mills
In 1824, gold was discovered on the north coast by a young boy named Willem Rasmijn. Ultimately, the search turned to gold-bearing quartz and mines were created with dynamite. The Balashi Gold Mill was built at the tip of the Spanish Lagoon near Frenchman’s Pass. In 1872, Aruba Island Gold Mining Company Ltd. (London) built a large smelting works at Bushiribana on the north coast. Though only in use for a decade, Bushiribana’s construction was so solid that impressive ruins still
Bon Bini Festival
The Bon Bini Festival takes place every Tuesday at 6:30 pm in the outdoor courtyard of historical Fort Zoutman. An engaging emcee introduces traditionally costumed folkloric dancers, local musical genres such as the mazurka and the waltz, and instruments such as the cuarta, wiri, raspu, and caja di orgel, a barrel organ affectionately called the “ting-a-ling box.” The steelpan, originally developed in the English Caribbean from oil drums, also adds a touch of local color. The works of talented artists and artisans are on sale, as are authentic culinary specialties.

Carubbian Festival
The Carubbian Festival takes place in San Nicolas every Thursday night from 6 to 10 pm, showcasing the multicultural charms of Aruba’s “Sunrise City.” The center of activities is a stage area where the audience can relax and enjoy some delicious Aruban and Caribbean food and a parade of local entertainers. Closed to traffic, the main street is a pedestrian mall promising fun activities for the whole family and filled with colorful booths selling food, handicrafts, and souvenirs. Packages including round-trip transportation are sold at hotels.

Museum
Aruba Aloe Factory and Museum

Historical Museum
(Downtown Oranjestad between two of Aruba’s oldest monuments, Fort Zoutman and the Willem III Tower). The museum houses a collection of artifacts acquired since its opening in 1983. There are audio-visual programs on topics related to Aruba’s history and a permanent exhibition outlining main events in Aruban history. Smaller, themed exhibitions are on periodic display. If visiting the museum on a Tuesday, stay in town for the Bon Bini Festival. Open Monday – Friday, 9 am – noon / 1:30 – 4:30 pm. museohistoricoarubano@hotmail.com

Archaeological Museum
(Schelpstraat, downtown Oranjestad)
This state-of-the-art museum is housed in the restored historic Ecury family home complex in downtown Oranjestad. Three periods of Amerindian habitation are documented through artifacts from various digs around the Island and presented through film and audio presentations, exhibits, and interactive technology. The museum sheds light on the cultural and religious practices of the Amerindians. Highlights include a reproduction of a maloca, a hut where natives lived 1,000 years ago, and an exposition of history-themed artwork by contemporary artists. Public programs include lectures, education projects, temporary exhibits, and workshops. archeo@setarnet.aw

Tours

Desalination Plant Tour
Aruba’s renowned, high-quality drinking water is produced at the world’s second largest seawater desalination plant. Visit Water en Energiebedrijf (W.E.B.) Aruba N.V., located in Balashi, for free tours on Thursday at 9:30 am. Advance reservations required. Wear closed shoes, a collared shirt, and trousers. Tel. (297) 585-4600

Balashi Plant Tour
Balashi is the island’s national beer and the only beer that is produced in Aruba. You can take a tour of the fully automated brewery with cutting-edge technology. Built in 1998 at a cost of about US$ 12 million, the state-of-the-art facility is equipped with special computer software from Germany that controls the quality of the brew during the entire process. To promote recycling and help protect the environment bottles that are returned to the plant will be re-used after going through a pasteurization process. More information on tours and (group tour) reservations at (297) 597-6544.

Aruba Aloe Factory Tour
Tour the state-of-the-art Aruba Aloe Factory and see firsthand the production process that turns aloe-vera leaves into finished products. The tour guides will explain all about the aloe plant and its uses. Free tours every 15 minutes. www.arubaaloe.com
Ostrich Farm
Located on the road to the Natural Bridge, a large ostrich farm provides an educational experience with an incubator-cum-hospital on site. Guided tours are given every half hour from 9 am to 4 pm.

Butterfly Farm
Step into a tropical garden teeming with butterflies from around the globe. Tour guides provide commentary on butterfly life. Your admission ticket gives you a free pass for the rest of your vacation. The Butterfly Farm is located in Palm Beach across from the Divi Aruba Phoenix Beach Resort. Open daily from 9 am to 4:30 pm.

Donkey Sanctuary
Home to 138 endangered donkeys, this guest-friendly sanctuary in Santa Lucia provides the opportunity to interact with these harmless animals in a fun environment. Stop for a snack and purchase a donkey-themed gift or souvenir; you can even adopt your own donkey! Volunteers care for the donkeys and organize activities and fund-raising events.

Bubali Bird Sanctuary
Also known as Bubali Plas, the Bubali Bird Sanctuary is an official nature preserve. This freshwater lagoon, located close to the high-rise hotel strip, is an important nesting site for many bird species. A tower located just at the edge of the cattail marsh across from the Mill Resort offers a vantage point for bird watching, especially exciting during late fall when the birds migrate to the south.

De Palm Island
De Palm Island is a private tropical paradise. Choose a relaxing day of sunbathing and leisure or exciting thrills at the spectacular water park. Waters teeming with abundant aquatic life, including brilliant blue parrotfish found only here, delight swimmers and snorkelers.

The waterslide park on De Palm Island boasts a shallow pool, 6 riveting waterslides, and over 70 fun-filled water activities, including net climbing, crawl tunnels, spinning trays, and bubble jets. The attractive all-inclusive package includes food and beverages, snorkeling equipment and instruction, and various island activities.

Behold a brilliant world of sea life with De Palm Island’s Sea Trek as you walk 20 feet below the surface in zero gravity along a 375-foot-long path. Air is safely delivered to the underwater helmet. Feed the fish, view the wonders of a man-made reef, and take your seat at the “Sea Trek Café.”
Aruba is a virtual nirvana for shoppers, with a greater selection of international brand-name products than anywhere else in the Caribbean or South America, and prices that are generally lower than in the United States! South Americans may save even more, and European brands are usually priced better here than in Europe. Oranjestad, the Island’s original shopping mecca, is livelier than ever. The year 2013 ushered in a new era for the Island’s capital with the introduction of the Caribbean’s first streetcar line. Three streetcars, designed in San Francisco and utilizing clean energy sources, take shoppers and sightseers through the heart of downtown (it’s free of charge and you can hop on and off at several stops along the way), where both historic Dutch colonial architecture and world-class shopping await. Whether you prefer international designer brands or quaint, one-of-a-kind boutiques, the downtown scene is a shopper’s delight. Parking is available in the free lot behind the bus station; taxi and bus service will also get you downtown in minutes. Regular shopping hours are from 9 am to 6 pm, Monday through Saturday, but there are sometimes extended hours when cruise ships are in port.

Downtown shopping

Royal Plaza
Located across from the harbor and adjacent to the main bus terminal, has become an iconic landmark in downtown Oranjestad. Its signature pink and white Dutch Caribbean architecture houses three levels of shops—featuring anything from fine jewelry and perfumes to cigars and souvenirs—as well as restaurants and an alfresco nightclub. The mall has an elevator and an escalator.

Renaissance Mall
Is home to elite luxury retailers like Cartier, Louis Vuitton, Carolina Herrera, BCBG, David Yurman, Rolex, and Gucci, just to name a few. Duty-free perfumes and cosmetics, Cuban cigars, and beach and resort wear can also be found in this indoor/outdoor mall. Upstairs, L.G. Smith’s Steak & Chop House, Crystal Casino, and Crystal Theater can be found. Shopping hours are 9 am - 8 pm, with later hours for restaurants, bars, and lounges.

Renaissance Marketplace
Anchored by the downtown marina, is just across the street from Renaissance Mall. Here, a lively atmosphere prevails in an alfresco venue that features an array of shops, restaurants, outdoor cafés, and an outdoor stage with live entertainment nightly. A state-of-the-art cinema complex and the Seaport Casino are also located here. Open daily, from 10 am to 9 pm. Enjoy extended hours at the dining and entertainment venues.
Low-rise area

Alhambra Casino & Shops
Is the Island’s newest shopping and dining destination. The breezy outdoor plaza invites visitors to stroll amongst an array of unique boutiques offering resort wear and swimwear, souvenirs, and gifts. A large coffee shop with alfresco seating; pizza, ice cream, and sandwich shops; a gourmet mini-mart; and an authentic Southern-style smokehouse barbecue restaurant make up the plaza’s culinary offerings, and a chic tapas and piano bar infuses energy into the nightlife scene.

High-rise area

Here the streets are lined with shops and kiosks, bars, cafés and restaurants, and exciting new malls, providing an entertaining ambiance for high-rise shopping and dining.

Paseo Herencia
At the heart of the area’s first large-scale outdoor mall, Paseo Herencia, is a gorgeous fountain featuring nighttime liquid fireworks choreographed with colorful lights and music, and an amphitheater that showcases a variety of themed events and performances throughout the year. Some 50 shops, a multitude of local and international restaurants, and a cinema complex with 6 movie screens fill this mall, which is dedicated to Juan Chabaya “Padu” Lampe, the legendary composer of Aruba’s national anthem. Parking garage on site.

Palm Beach Plaza
Located next to Paseo Herencia and a block away from the Holiday Inn Aruba, is a striking three-level outdoor mall, the largest of its kind in the southern Caribbean. Positioned as more than shopping, Palm Beach Plaza is a family entertainment venue with cinemas; a children’s entertainment center with a supervised playroom, activities, and a rock-climbing wall; a bowling alley; a gourmet fast-food court; fine dining restaurants; and a multitude of shops and boutiques to peruse.

The Village
Located in the heart of Palm Beach, is a colorfully captivating collection of stylish shops and restaurants. During the evening hours, the courtyard bustles with a festive outdoor market selling souvenirs and local crafts. The Village has several popular bars and clubs that stay hopping into the wee hours. There is convenient parking, and taxis are abundant.

South Beach Centre
Set the pace a few years ago, establishing the Palm Beach area as a lively district for shopping, dining, and entertainment. Anchored by the Hard Rock Café Aruba, this outdoor plaza comes to life after dark. In addition to gift and souvenir shops and kiosks, South Beach Centre has a diverse dining scene, tempting palates with sushi, Dutch cafés, Chinese and Japanese cuisine, Indian fare, a sports bar, and a chic outdoor lounge with nightly live music. Parking is convenient and ample.

Arawak Garden
Across from the Occidental Grand Aruba Resort, is home to a variety of restaurants, including a Dutch bar/café, an Argentinian steak house, a pizzeria, and a seafood house. A piano bar, live outdoor entertainment, and kiosks for shoppers make this a lively and popular spot for locals and tourists. Special events and festivals take place throughout the year.

La Hacienda Mall
Across from Playa Linda Beach Resort, features a Brazilian churrascaria, an Italian restaurant, a row of kiosks along the main strip, and interesting shops selling souvenirs, gifts, jewelry, and more. Check with your concierge about shops at your resort.
Supermarkets
In addition to a host of small markets found along every road, the Island offers four mega supermarkets—Ling & Sons, Kong Hing, Super Food, and Certified Supercenter—all located outside of downtown Oranjestad near the low-rise area; they are generally open Monday through Saturday from 8 am to 8 pm, and Sunday from 9 am to 1 pm (Super Food from 8 am to 2 pm). At the Island’s supermarkets, you will find everything you have at home plus international gourmet delights and unique local products. Enjoy the selection of Dutch cheeses; confections; exotic condiments; international wines and liqueurs; local spirits, produce, and hot sauces; Aruba Aloe products; and homemade baked goods and snacks.

Nightlife
Aruban nights add excitement to the Island’s quiet desert-island persona. Mingle with locals and tourists at one of the scores of casual beach and pier bars along the coast from downtown Oranjestad to the far end of the high-rise strip. Weekly managers’ cocktail parties and daily happy hours are island traditions. Cruises depart from Palm Beach piers; hop aboard for a sunset sail, a romantic nighttime interlude, or a fun party. At resorts, Aruba Carnival shows boast talented dancers and brilliant costumes, while sumptuous outdoor theme-night buffets delight the palate. Twelve exciting resort casinos offer non-stop after-dark gaming action, lively house bands, and exhilarating ambiances.

Enjoy the latest films in air-conditioned comfort at The Cinemas at the Renaissance Marketplace and Paseo Herencia, as well as at the Caribbean Cinemas at Palm Beach Plaza. The high-rise area now rivals downtown Oranjestad for trendy venues and after-hours haunts, from karaoke and martini bars to upscale bistro and casual pubs. The strip comes alive after dark with shops, kiosks, cafés, restaurants, and bars.

Casinos
Aruba’s casino scene sizzles with expectation and exhilaration as bells sound with each win and lively crowds ring around each gaming table. As the originator and home of Caribbean stud poker as well as the host of professional poker tournaments, and offering everything in slots from progressive jackpots to nickel machines, Aruba welcomes both veteran gamblers and casual players in courting chance. Whether pursuing luck with a roll of the dice or a spin of the roulette wheel, the carnival-like atmosphere provides unforgettable thrills.

Offering much more than familiar table games and machines, Aruba’s casinos feature theme-night events, tournaments, bingo, entertainment, special offers, and prizes. Some have sports books for betting on the international sporting events of the day. No one under 18 is allowed in casinos.

Aruba aloe
Aruba Aloe, a family owned company, is the leading producer of the world’s finest aloe since 1890. Aruba Aloe’s products range from shower gels and sun protection items to body lotions and lip balm. Beside their own plant and main store, you will find Aruba Aloe on island in multiple shops.

Cigars
The Aruhiba is a cigar produced and cultivated in Aruba by Benjamin Petrochi. Grown from Dominican and Cuban strains, Aruban tobacco offers a full, distinctive flavor in both its mild and strong varieties. The cigar case has the Aruhiba logo and “Made in Aruba” stamp. Aruban cigars are sold at local shops and kiosks and are permitted in the US.

Stamps
Aruba’s colorful and artistic stamps celebrate Aruba’s unique history, culture, and nature, and also have international themes. Post Aruba provides year packs of first day covers and postage stamps with new and innovative features. A stamp can be created from your own digital photo as part of a souvenir sheet with an Aruban design and map. (The Main Post Office is located in downtown Oranjestad and a new branch at Palm Beach Plaza.) filatelearuba@setarnet.aw

Music
What better way to relive your Aruba vacation than to take home a music CD? Popular Aruba Carnival tunes include the rhythmic and fast-moving road marches, the tumbas of African origin, and the commentary-laden calypsos. Traditional lilting steelpan music has expanded its scope to include easy listening, classical, salsa, jazz, and reggae. Latin salsa and merengue and Aruban waltzes and boleros attract music fans of all ages.

Handicrafts, art, and photography
Local artisans create unique and decorative items made of clay pottery and natural materials such as shells, sand, driftwood, and kwihi wood. These souvenirs can be found at flea markets, stores, resorts, and weekly festivals.

Local artists utilize canvases and various media to interpret the Aruban culture and landscape. The Island’s friendly people and natural beauty are captured through the lenses of talented photographers.

Food and beverage
Delicious traditional Aruban products are sold at local supermarkets.
Wine
Using various types of grapes and local fruits in several combinations, Vincente Kock has produced local wine for the past quarter-century. Shamu grapes, Mediterranean grapes, and coastal grapes are mixed with local fruits; European grape varieties are grown from cuttings. Visit the vineyard in Santa Cruz (Sombre 22-A). Tel. (297) 585-3995 or (297) 567-6623. Visits are generally scheduled for Monday and Thursday at 10 am.

Hot Sauce
Hot Delight's pica di papaya, light orange in color, is a hot sauce made with locally grown green papayas. It is less potent than Hot Delight's Madam hot sauce, made of Madame Jeanette peppers, which far exceed the jalapeno in intensity. These sauces are all natural and contain no preservatives. Hot Delight gourmet products have won national acclaim and are found in most homes and restaurants all over Aruba. These condiments are made by Aurelio Ruiz using a recipe that his grandfather developed in 1880.

Sweets & Snacks
Arubans prepare treats such as cocada (coconut candy) and tamarind balls, as well as rich desserts such as pan bollo (bread pudding) and cashew cake. Piet’s Ice Cream, a family tradition for decades, is non-fat and available in delectable tropical flavors. Try a pastechi, the national snack, a deep-fried half-moon pastry with a savory filling (chicken, chop suey, tuna, beef, cheese, or ham).

Aruba’s “Balashi Cocktail”
AWA (Papiamento: water) is a clear, refreshing liquid in the blue-labeled bottle. Aruba has some of the best-tasting drinking water on the planet, produced by a desalination process utilizing coral rock as a filter.

Balashi Beer
Balashi is Aruba’s national beer, produced in a fully automated brewery with cutting-edge technology. Built in 1998 at a cost of about US$12 million, the state-of-the-art facility is equipped with special computer software from Germany that controls the quality of the brew during the entire process. The beer is a deep golden color and easy on the foam. It has a soft bitterness, an aroma of fresh hops, and a short aftertaste.

Palmera Rum
Palmera Quality Products imports raw materials for rum and other alcoholic beverages and uses its own formulas for blending. It has the most extensive line of locally bottled alcoholic products sold on Aruba and seven different flavors of liqueur, including the Palmera, Bon Bini, and Taste of Aruba labels.

Coecoe & Ponche Crema
Playa Liquor & Bottling Company produces coecoei, a deep red alcoholic beverage used in many tropical cocktails. The recipe is centuries old, originally made by an Indian tribe of Venezuela and introduced on Aruba some 60 years ago. Ponche crema is a creamy, smooth, and refreshing beverage made of egg yolks, cream, rum, and a variety of spices.
Restaurants

With so many restaurants to choose from—many in walking distance and others accessible by taxi, rental car, and bus—Aruba is a foodie’s paradise!

The abundance, full flavor, and diversity of cuisines prepared by world-class chefs; fine international wines; casual, elegant, and creative ambiances; and attentive service combine to create very special dining experiences.

The high-rise strip is now home to about 150 restaurants. This bustling area is dotted with an eclectic patchwork of shops, malls, cafés, and restaurants. But do venture downtown and off the beaten path to discover local favorites and trendy new establishments. No matter where you go, you will find warm island hospitality and a unique menu of tasty ethnic and international delights.

Classical delicacies such as frog legs, duck, venison, foie gras, and chateaubriand join fresh Caribbean catch such as mahi-mahi and wahoo, Argentinean churrasco, Middle Eastern shoarma, Japanese sushi and teppanyaki selections, Spanish tapas, Indian curries, Caribbean jerk ribs, homemade pastas, USDA choice steaks, and Maine lobster.

But, also be sure to sample hearty and healthy traditional home cooking at local restaurants, including soups, fresh island catch, and authentic dishes such as goat stew, keshi yena, funchi, pastechis, Johnny cakes, and pan bati.

Indeed, the tiny island nation of Aruba provides an impressive world culinary tour rivaling the most cosmopolitan of cities.

The Aruba Gastronomic Association provides a unique dine-around program as well as gift certificates valid at all member restaurants. Purchase online and your dinner coupons will be waiting for you at your hotel desk. Visit www.arubadining.com for more information.
