FACTS

Río San Juan

Dominican Republic occupies the eastern two-thirds of the island of Hispaniola, which it shares with the Republic of Haiti, and is the second largest country in the Caribbean, comprising an area of 19,292 square miles (49,967 square kilometers). The country has a population of more than 10.5 million and enjoys sunny tropical weather year-round. The average year-round temperatures are 77° to 88° F (25° to 31 C°). The cooler season is November through April, while it is warmest from May through October.

TIME: The local time zone is Eastern Caribbean Time (GMT -0400). Dominican Republic does not observe daylight savings time.

CAPITAL CITY: Dominican Republic's historic and sophisticated capital city, Santo Domingo, is the oldest city of the New World and its Colonial City was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1990.

LANGUAGE: Spanish is the official language; however, you'll be surprised by the fact that the majority of employees in hotels and tourist destinations speak relatively good English, French, German and Italian.

CURRENCY: The Dominican peso (RD$) is the official currency.

GETTING HERE: Dominican Republic currently has eight international airports throughout the country, including: Punta Cana International Airport (PUJ), La Romana International Airport (LRM), Gregorio Luperón International Airport (POP) in Puerto Plata, El Cibao International Airport (STI) in Santiago, Las Americas International Airport (SDQ) in Santo Domingo, and El Catey International Airport (AZS) in Samaná. Maritime ports that regularly receive cruise ships include Santo Domingo Port (Don Diego and Sans Souci terminals), La Romana (East and West docks, Isla Catalina and Casa de Campo Marina), Puerto Plata (Amber Cove), and Samaná Bay facilities.

DOCUMENTATION: Most visitors arriving in the Dominican Republic—including those from the United States, Canada, United Kingdom, the European Union, Russia, Ukraine, Kazakhstan, Mexico, many South American countries and Central America (see the full list of countries on our website)—only need a passport with a minimum validity equivalent to the duration of their stay to enter the country. The cost of the 30-day tourist card, paid separately in the past, is now included in the airline ticket for all visitors.

VISAS: Any person, regardless of their nationality, can visit Dominican Republic if they are a legal resident of, or if they have one of the following valid visas in their passport: United States, Canada, United Kingdom or Schengen. Travelers who do not have a passport or visa from countries listed above will need to apply for a visa. To issue a visa, the passport needs to have a validity of at least six (6) months. If you need to apply for a tourist visa, please visit this website to find your Dominican consulate abroad: www.consuladord.com

ELECTRICITY: Operates at 110 Volts/60 Hertz, the same as North America. If needed, adapter plugs are available at most hotels.

TAXES: Dominican hotels and restaurants collect 28 percent of their published prices (18 percent sales tax + 10 percent service charges).

MEDICAL PRECAUTIONS: Because of the strength of the Caribbean sun and the climatic conditions of the area, it is recommended that vacationers always wear sunscreen and mosquito repellent when outdoors, and drink water throughout the day to avoid dehydration. Only bottled water is advised. For emergencies, contact 9-1-1, our National Care System for Emergency and Safety. <https://911.gob.do>

THE HONEYMOON

A major advantage of traveling to Dominican Republic is that newlyweds are already at their honeymoon destination, simply an “all-in-one” package. You can choose from a wide variety of environments that provide an unforgettable romantic experience. There is no shortage of beauty and romance at the beautiful beaches of Punta Cana and Bayahibe, the luxury of La Romana, the history and romance of the capital city of Santo Domingo, the captivating nature of Samaná and the adventurous spirit of Puerto Plata.

Still stumped about which direction to take? Then make it a split decision – spend a week in the south or the east and a week in the north. Some destinations are only 3 or 4 hours apart, so you won’t waste a whole day traveling and you can explore more than one region during your stay. After all, it’s your honeymoon; make it memorable!

SANTO DOMINGO

Santo Domingo, the Cultural Capital of the Americas, is undoubtedly the most diverse, vibrant and culturally rich city in the Caribbean. With fascinating museums, delicious gastronomy, exciting entertainment options and rich history with the azure Caribbean Sea as your romantic backdrop, Santo Domingo is the ideal destination for those looking for a place combining both romance and history.

COLONIAL CITY: The Colonial City was the first city established in the New World in 1498 by Christopher Columbus' brother, Bartholomew Columbus. Thanks to its historical and cultural value, the Colonial City –home to the first cathedral, street, hospital, university and monastery in America– was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1990. Here, lovers will find preserved buildings dating back to the 16th century, many of which are museums. Among them is the Alcázar de Colón, the Ozama Fortress and the palace of the Spanish court (Museo de las Casas Reales), offering exciting and exotic backdrops to a lifelong proposal.

LOS TRES OJOS: Los Tres Ojos, or The Three Eyes, is the name of a 50-foot (15 meter) open-air limestone cave in Mirador del Este Park near Santo Domingo. Inside are one open-air and three underground lakes created by tectonic fractures when underground caves collapsed ages ago. Surrounded by stalactites and stalagmites and Taino pictographs, and inhabited by bats, turtles and fish, the lakes give rise to mysterious reflections of blue, green and yellow.

CULTURAL PLAZA: Santo Domingo has dozens of museums, many of which are located in the city's Plaza de la Cultura. Here, couples can explore the Museum of the Dominican Man, the Museum of Modern Art, the National Museum of History and Geography, and the National Museum of Natural History. The new Museo de las Atarazanas Reales (MAR) houses in the Colonial City, the most important exhibition of underwater archeology in the Dominican Republic and America, with its valuable collection of historical and cultural assets extracted from the Dominican coasts.

BEACHES: There are two main beaches near the city of Santo Domingo: Boca Chica, just 18 miles (30 kilometers) east of Santo Domingo, famous for its clear turquoise water, powdery-white sand, wide variety of water sports and large crowds on weekends; and the more relaxed Juan Dolio, located 12 miles (20 kilometers) west of Boca Chica, offering a variety of excellent restaurants serving Dominican and international cuisine.

GASTRONOMY AND NIGHTLIFE: Santo Domingo is a cosmopolitan city with a great variety of specialized restaurants and nightlife venues, such as bars, clubs, casinos and theaters. From romantic and bohemian atmospheres in the Colonial City, to the most modern ones in the hotels and main avenues of the city.

The region also offers attractive shopping centers with diverse gastronomic offers such as Puntacana Village, Downtown Punta Cana, BlueMall Puntacana, Sanctuary Town, among others.

Upon arrival, you will feel as though you have arrived in the secret paradise island of your dreams surrounded by soft white sand and turquoise waters where snorkeling is ideal.
